MEMORANDUM

TO: Executive Directors
Area Agencies on Aging

FROM: Tim M. Catherman, Deputy Commissioner, Support Services

DATE: April 11, 2006

SUBJECT: Area Plan Training

This year VDA is not making any major changes to the area plan reporting forms and budget. We will reissue the plan document with correct dates on our website in the near future. Since changes are minimal, we are not planning to hold formal training this year. However if you would like individual training or answers to specific questions, we can accommodate that. In addition, VDA staff will review the budget forms during the Financial Management Training and can take Area Plan questions. As always VDA staff is available by telephone or e-mail.

If you have any questions please call me.

SUBJECT: Virginia Advance Directives Day is April 18th

Below is information on Virginia's first Advance Directives Day (April 18). Please use the website mentioned below or telephone Mr. Nathan A. Kottkamp, McGuire Woods LLP, directly at (804) 775-1092 if you would like to participate.

On April 18, 2006, the health care and legal communities of Virginia will launch an unprecedented initiative to raise public awareness of the need to plan ahead for health care decisions related to end-of-life care and medical decision-making when patients are unable to speak for themselves. Virginia Advance Directives Day will encourage the specific use of Advance Directives (living wills and designation of a health care agent) to communicate these important health care decisions.

On Virginia Advance Directives Day, hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, hospices, continuing care retirement communities, and physicians throughout Virginia will be providing the public with educational materials and free forms to encourage Virginians to communicate their health care decisions in writing. More than 150 facilities in every corner of Virginia have already committed to participating, and responses continue to stream in.

Various events and programs will be offered at other health care facilities throughout the state, all of which are listed on the web page dedicated to this event (check with your local provider for specific times); www.vsb.org/sections/hl/advancedirectivesday2006.html. The Advance Directives Day web page also contains free forms (including a large print form), educational information (including links for organizations that offer forms for people in other states).

Kinship Care

Title IV E Demonstration Waiver

Lyndell Lewis, Family Preservation Program Supervisor at the Virginia Department for Social Services, announces that the Federal Government had granted Virginia a Title IV E Demonstration Waiver. Children who are in the Department of Social Services foster care system can bring their Title IV E payments with them if they leave the foster care system to reside in a kinship care situation. For further information on the waiver program and qualifications for participation, contact Lyndell Lewis at the Virginia Department of Social Services. lyndell.lewis@dss.virginia.gov

Hampton Roads Regional Task Force on Kinship Care

The Hampton Roads Task Force will sponsor a conference examining ways to strengthen the family by supporting African American and Latino males' journey to manhood. Dr. Nancy Boyd-Franklin, a family therapist, psychologist and professor at Rutgers University, will lead the discussion. The conference will be held May 4, 2006 from 8:30 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. for a cost of $35.00. Breakfast and lunch are included in the registration fee for the event that will be held at the Scott Dozier Dining Hall, 2nd Floor Ballroom at Norfolk State University. For more information, contact Clifford Barnett or Suzette Leathers at 757-393-0570. Norfolk State University and VISSTA are also sponsors of the event.

Baby Boomer Information

Technology and Innovation in an Emerging Senior Boomer Marketplace

Now available at <http://www.technology.gov/Reports.htm> is a white paper prepared for the White House Conference on Aging by the Technology Administration of the U.S. Department of Commerce. Entitled Technology and Innovation in an Emerging Senior Boomer Marketplace, the paper examines a number of issues, barriers and responses relating to technology for an aging population. The paper purports that for today's aging population, technology will be designed to promote independence, productivity, independence and a good quality of life – as opposed to previous aging generations' dependence on hospital and nursing home care.

10 Days That Unexpectedly Changed America

The History Channel credits Baby Boomers for initiating two of the days that unexpectedly changed America's social, political and cultural climate in a dramatic way. <http://www.historychannel.com/10days/>

When America Was Rocked airs Tuesday, April 11, 2006 at 9:00 P.M. and explores the radical cultural change affecting manners and morals in the United States initiated by the music of Elvis Presley. 82% of households with televisions tuned into the singer's September 9, 1956 Ed Sullivan Show performance.

Freedom Summer airs Thursday, April 13, 2006 at 9:00 P.M. and relates the story of the summer of 1964. White college student volunteers were recruited to register black voters throughout the nation. June 21, 1964 two of these volunteers and a Mississippi black civil rights worker were murdered at the hands of the Klu Klux Klan in Philadelphia, Mississippi. The mastermind of the murder plot was convicted in 2005.

SUBJECT: JOINT AGING INFORMATION & REFERRAL/CARE COORDINATION TRAINING – VAIRS ANNUAL CONFERENCE, MAY 17-18, 2006

We are excited about the training opportunities available via the Joint Aging Information and Referral(I&R)/ Care Coordination & Virginia Alliance of Information and Referral Systems (VAIRS) Annual Conference, to be held May 17 – 18, 2006, at Holiday Inn – Select, Fredericksburg, Virginia. Attached is a copy of the registration form which has a brief description of the workshop selections. The registration form can also be found on the VAIRS web site, www.vairs.org, and click on the “Training” link.

With so many hurricanes last year, most memorable, Hurricane Katrina, aging and VAIRS will focus on emergency preparedness. The morning segment of the aging training will address preparing your I&R for disasters, and we will have 2 speakers who worked with Hurricane Katrina evacuees, one is an area agency on aging. Also we will have staff from the Virginia Department of Emergency Management to talk about Virginia Citizens Corps and its role during national disasters. The afternoon segment will be a workshop on Latin culture. This will be a very lively and dynamic session, so please come prepared to learn and be entertained.

At the VAIRS Annual Conference there will be opportunity to take the National I&R Certification Exam. Remember you must pre-register, so go to the AIRS web site for information. AIRS must receive your exam registration fee and form 30 days before the exam.

The VAIRS conference luncheon keynote speaker was involved in the 2-1-1 initiative and will speak on its involvement in New Orleans during Hurricane Katrina. 2-1-1 Virginia, the universal health and human services information and referral number was launched in Virginia in February 2006 by Governor Tim Kaine. For those of you unfamiliar with the service, there is a workshop on May 17 at 11:00a.m., Introducing 2-1-1 Virginia. This service will be delivered via the Virginia’s six Department of Social Services administered I&R Centers. We look forward to seeing you May 17-18 in Fredericksburg.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Keynote: Calling 2-1-1 in Disaster & Recovery

Fran Ledger Fran is a consultant on the Disaster Technical Assistance Project sponsored by the Department of Housing and Urban Development and on other projects in Singapore, San Diego, and Washington DC. Ms. Ledger comes from VIA LINK, the 2-1-1 center for the Greater New Orleans Area, where she oversaw the Jefferson/Orleans Parish Homeless Management Information System (HMIS), a collaborative client management system of 60 agencies.

Jonathan Padgett: Jonathan is the current Information Systems & Technology Director for VIA LINK. Jonathan developed the strategic plan for VIA LINK's technology infrastructure, which he continues to supervise and implement. Jonathan also administers both UNITY's Homeless Management Information System and the Greater New Orleans Community Resource Directory. Before assuming his position at VIA LINK, Jonathan served as the Technical Support Manager of an educational software company, a Research Law Librarian, and as a freelance editor. He currently lives in New Orleans with his wife and four rescue pets.

VIA LINK 2-1-1 offers Information & Referral (I&R) to New Orleans and surrounding area (12 parishes in all). Affiliated with area United Ways, its I&R services expanded to become a 2-1-1 center in June 2001. VIA LINK also provides crisis intervention through the national suicide prevention lifeline, as well as a friendly support line for youth, YOUTH LINK. Moreover, they act as the system-wide administrators and coordinators for the HMIS of the Greater New Orleans Continuum of Care.

Just prior to Hurricane Katrina, VIA LINK staff had to evacuate their services to Monroe, LA, and quickly ramp up a very small 2-1-1 center there to handle the tremendous post-disaster call volume from the Greater New Orleans area.

Karen Hyatt, 2-1-1 Disaster Coordinator for the United Way of America, who recently visited and evaluated VIA LINK's programs in New Orleans, wrote "Out of a staff of twenty plus I&R Specialists and 2-1-1 hotline staff, only half have been able to return home. People call VIA LINK for housing, or medicine, or transportation or funding to pay their bills...and the VIA LINK staff can't just click on resources for Orleans Parish as they normally would....Over half the non-profits in their service area have been defunded or are inoperable at this time. The resource manager and his staff have done a tremendous job of starting almost from scratch, verifying their resources and finding out who is back and who isn't. But answering the calls of people who can't obtain housing, when you yourself don't have a permanent place to live, is difficult. The staff at VIA LINK somehow make this look easy."...
